

Privacy Policy

At AppNomu Business Service, we are dedicated to safeguarding the privacy of our users. This privacy policy details the collection, usage, and protection of your personal information. For any inquiries, please reach out to us at privacy@appnomu.com.

At AppNomu Business Service, we prioritize the protection of your personal information. We collect certain personally identifiable information from you to enhance our services and communication with you. Please review our Privacy Policy below.

Information we collect from you

When using our Service, we may request personally identifiable information such as your name, email address, telephone number, address, and log data. This information is essential for contacting you and providing personalized services.

Access to your Personal Information

You have the right to access, update, and delete your Personal Information. To do so, please contact us at privacy@appnomu.com.

Log Data

We collect information that your browser sends whenever you visit our Service ("Log Data"). This Log Data may include information such as your computer's Internet Protocol ("IP") address, browser type, browser version, the pages of our Service that you visit, the time and date of your visit, the time spent on those pages and other statistics.

How we use your information

We utilize your Personal Information to enhance our services and communicate with you effectively. Additionally, we may send you marketing materials related to our services. If you prefer not to receive such materials, you can opt out by contacting us at privacy@appnomu.com.

Non-Personally Identifiable Information

We may gather non-personally identifiable information, such as your browsing behaviour and log data, to improve our services and user experience.

Storage and Security of your information

We take the security of your Personal Information seriously and have implemented measures to safeguard it. Your information is stored on secure servers, and access is restricted to authorized personnel.

Cookies and Pixels

We use cookies and pixels to enhance your browsing experience and provide personalized content. Cookies are small files stored on your device, while pixels are small images that track your behaviour. You can disable cookies in your browser settings, but this may impact your website experience.

Service Providers

We may employ third-party companies and individuals to facilitate our Service, to provide the Service on our behalf, to perform Service-related services or to assist us in analysing how our Service is used. These third parties have access to your Personal Information only to perform these tasks on our behalf and are obligated not to disclose or use it for any other purpose.

Links To Other Sites

Our Service may contain links to other sites that are not operated by us. If you click on a third-party link, you will be directed to that third-party's site. We strongly advise you to review the Privacy Policy of every site you visit. We have no control over and assume no responsibility for the content, privacy policies or practices of any third-party sites or services.

Children's Privacy

Our Service does not address anyone under the age of 18 ("Children"). We do not knowingly collect personally identifiable information from children under 18. If you are a parent or guardian and you are aware that your child has provided us with Personal Information, please contact us. If we discover that a child under 18 has provided us with Personal Information, we will delete such information from our servers immediately.

Changes To This Privacy Policy

We may update our Privacy Policy from time to time. We will notify you of any changes by posting the new Privacy Policy on this page. You are advised to review this Privacy Policy periodically for any changes. Changes to this Privacy Policy are effective when they are posted on this page.

Compliance With Laws

We will disclose your Personal Information where required to do so by law or subpoena.
